

Le Grand Bal

New Years Eve 2014

Imperial Palace, Vienna, Austria

$1,959 per person
double occupancy
(airfare not included)

The elegant beginning of the Grand Ball season, the “Le Grand Bal” takes place on December 31st in the Viennese Hofburg Palace (Imperial Palace). Visitors come from all over the world to spend New Year’s in the former winter residence of the Austrian Emperor.

Special Le Grand Bal airfares available from select U.S. cities. Please call for detailed price and schedule information.

A stunning lighting and red carpet reception will mark the official start. A cocktail will be served in the Foyer and walking acts will greet you. Then the Grand Staircase will open and you will be guided to your reserved seats in the Grand Festival Hall. Enjoy your gala banquet - Welcome to “Le Grand Bal”!

Internationally known orchestras and bands invite you to dance in the Festival Hall and other splendid halls. Dance music ranges from the traditional Viennese Waltz to Foxtrot, Cha Cha, Rumba, Quickstep and Disco. At midnight, the ringing of the bell from St. Stephan’s Cathedral can be heard. The climax is the fabulous show starting after midnight in the Festival Hall. Stars from the State Opera and Volksopera sing and dance to melodies from operas and operettas.

INCLUDED IN OUR SERVICES ARE:

- Four nights accommodation at 4-star Hotel Kaiserhof (Arrival December 29, 2014, check out January 02, 2015 double occupancy, all rooms with private bath)
- Daily breakfast buffet with champagne
- All hotel taxes and service charges
- Roundtrip private transfer from the Vienna airport/train station to hotel
- City sightseeing tour of Vienna
- Ticket for the Le Grand Bal on December 31, 2014, welcome cocktail, gala dinner, red or white wine, table reservation and champagne

10224 N. Port Washington Road
Mequon, WI 53092

Phone: (800) 558-6850
E-mail: sales@valhol.com
Website: www.valhol.com
Like us on Facebook!